An inspection has been made at this location to determine if any violations of the fire code exist. If violations have been found, this shall serve as your official notice, and the inspector(s) shall explain each violation fully. All violations must be corrected immediately. A re-inspection of the premises will be made at a future date to verify the required corrections. Failure to correct violations shall cause the owner or responsible party to be in possible violation of state statutes, or city or county ordinances, whichever are applicable. A fee may be charged for re-inspections if violations are not corrected promptly.
